2 Bedroom, 2.50 Bathroom, 2,240 sqft

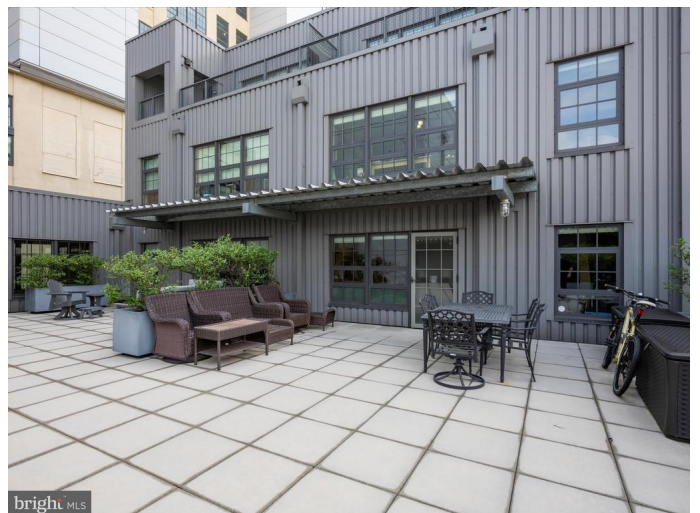

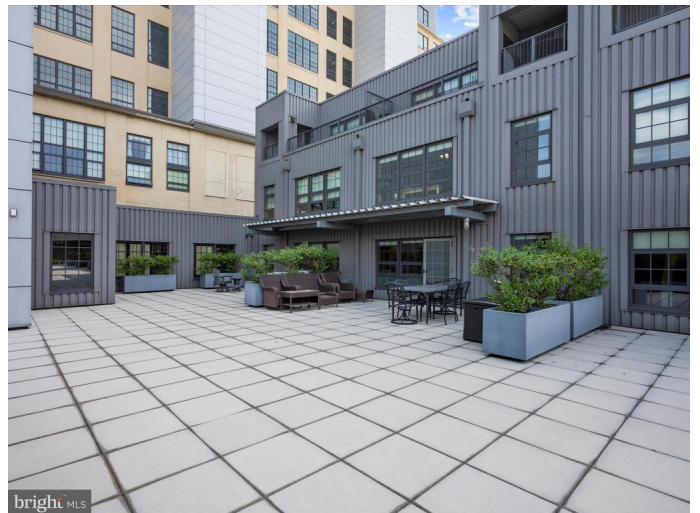

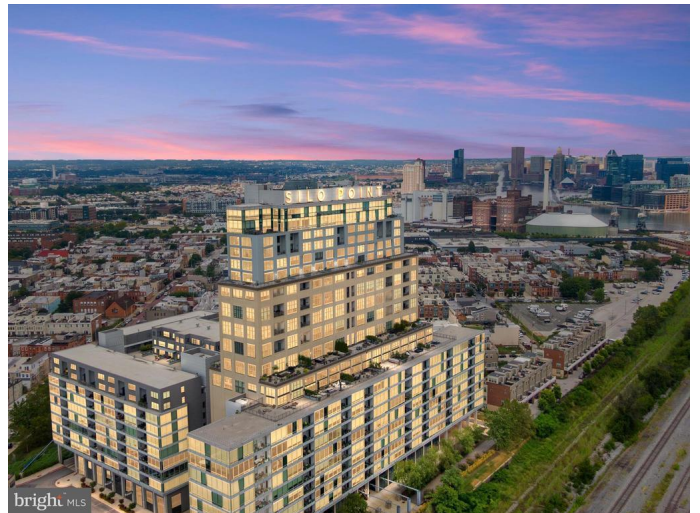

Residential on 0.00 Acres

LOCUST POINT, Baltimore, MD

Welcome to the ultimate conversation starter, a Skytown at Silo Point thatâ€™s equal parts gallery, museum, sports hall of fame, and pop culture time capsule. Spread out over multiple levels, this 2-bedroom, 2.5-bath home with a den features high ceilings, large windows, and both an expansive terrace and a balcony, offering views that stretch from the northeast to the northwest.

Every inch of this place has something to say, and none of it whispers. Hallways double as a history walk, with framed front-page headlines marking moments that made you gasp, cheer, or shake your head. Movie posters stake their claim like Hollywood royalty, sports memorabilia flexes its championship cred, and collectibles spill from shelves in a glorious â€œIâ€™ve been places, Iâ€™ve met people, and I kept the proofâ€• kind of way. The powder room? A bold Orioles-orange love letter to baseball season. The den? Equal parts media shrine, game-day command center, and â€œjust try not to get distractedâ€• workspace.

When youâ€™re ready to entertain, the gourmet kitchen is perfect for pre-party bites before spilling out to the terrace or balcony for skyline cocktails and mocktails. The primary suite is its own retreat, with private views, while the second bedroom is guest-ready (or display-ready, if youâ€™re running out of wall space). New floors add a fresh polish, and two deeded parking spots make city living downright civilized.

Whether you keep the walls clean for your own treasures or follow the seller’s lead and turn them into conversation central, the home itself – not the memorabilia – is what conveys.

Residents of Silo Point enjoy 24-hour concierge services, secure access, a state-of-the-art fitness center with a yoga studio, a sky lounge on the 19th floor, pet-friendly areas, game rooms, and EV charging stations. On-site offerings also include Reflex Functional Fitness, InVein Aesthetics medical spa, and a bi-weekly farmers market hosted by Green’s Greens. Ideally located near Fort McHenry, major highways, BWI Airport, and all that Baltimore’s waterfront has to offer, this home provides elevated city living in one of the city’s most architecturally significant and amenity-rich buildings.
